

purpose

noun

That which a person sets before himself as an object to be accomplished.

peacemaker

noun

One who seeks to restore friendship with God and one another.

hospitality

noun

The practice of cheerfully receiving strangers or guests with kindness and generosity.

delight

verb

To receive great pleasure in;
to be greatly pleased.

selfless

adjective

Putting the welfare of others before self.

creative

noun

The use of the imagination, especially in the production of an artistic work.

responsibility

noun

- 1) The state of being accountable.
- 2) A moral duty to behave in a particular way.

wise

adjective

- 1) Having knowledge and discernment.
- 2) Being skillful.

content

adjective

Having a mind at peace;
being satisfied with what you have.

resourcefulness

noun

The ability to find the “hidden” assets that God has already provided.

happy

adjective

Experiencing pleasure and joy; satisfied; enjoying well-being and contentment.

diligence

noun

Constant effort to accomplish the task; industry.

conscience

noun

That little spark of celestial fire that tells me right from wrong.

opportunity

noun

A time or circumstance favorable for the end purpose desired.

welfare

noun

Health, happiness, and good fortune; well-being.

guidance

noun

The act of leading or directing in a specific way.

steward

verb

To carefully manage the property of another as if it were your own.

fulfill

verb

To bring into actuality;
to make real.

record

noun

An account or memorial of past events and individuals.