

virtuous

adjective

Moral excellence;
conforming to moral
and ethical principles.

geography

noun

The descriptive science of the Earth, which God created as the stage for man's activities.

triumph

verb

- 1. To obtain victory.
- 2. To rejoice over a success.

work

noun

The occupation for which one is rewarded with payment.

love

noun

A heart attitude
that deliberately chooses
the welfare of others over self.

revenge

noun

Spiteful action taken on a person in return for an injury or offense.

Anointed One

Hebrew: Messiah

Greek: Christ

A title of Jesus, whose power sets the captive free.

confess

verb

To acknowledge belief or faith in.

forgive

verb

To pardon an offense
or debt owed and
treat the offender as not guilty.

self-denial

noun

The act of putting one's personal interests or wellbeing aside for the sake of others.

believe

verb

To trust; to place full confidence in;
to rest upon with faith.

purpose

noun

The end or aim
of any plan.

feast

noun

A religious festival celebrated with joy and thanksgiving to honor God or an event.

celebrate

verb

To praise; to honor by festivities and marks of joy and respect.

duty

noun

The moral force that bind you to your obligations to God, parents, and those in authority over you.

comfort

verb

To console and give moral or emotional strength to another;
to cheer or enliven.

restore

verb

To return to a person something which he has lost or has been unjustly taken from him.

servant

noun

One who voluntarily
serves another.

prophecy

noun

Knowledge of the future spoken under divine inspiration.

despair

verb

To lose all hope.

To be overcome by a sense of defeat.

victory

noun

The defeat of an enemy in battle.

mission

noun

An inner calling to pursue an activity or perform a service.

name

noun

In Scripture, God's name signifies His attributes, His nature, His character, His will —
even God Himself.