

fantasy

noun

Fictional literature
characterized by imaginative or supernatural elements.

reveal

verb

To show; to make known something before unknown
or hidden; to unveil secrets.

repentance

noun

Turning from sin or past conduct and doing what is right in God's sight.

truthful

adjective

Full of truth, which is the virtue of honesty.

deceive

verb

To cause another
to believe what is untrue.

reputation

noun

The general opinion
that people have
about someone's character

selflessness

noun

The quality of love that puts concern for the welfare of others before self.

hospitality

noun

The friendly welcome
and entertainment
of guests or strangers.

prophecy

noun

An inspired declaration or foretelling of something to come.

hope

noun

A desire of some good and the belief that it is obtainable.

beautiful

adjective

Having the qualities of beauty; pleasing to the sight or mind.

sword

noun

1. An offensive weapon having a long and sharp-pointed blade with a cutting edge.
2. An emblem of authority and power.

grace

noun

Undeserved favor toward man;
the mercy of God as distinguished from His justice.

ransom

noun

The sacrificial act of rescuing somebody from captivity
by paying the price.

victory

noun

Triumph in the defeat of an enemy or opponent.

liberate

verb

To set free,
as from oppression,
imprisonment or control.

calling

noun

1. A divine invitation or summons.
2. A naming.
3. A title.