

pioneer

noun

1. One of the first to settle in a new territory.
2. One who takes the lead in developing a new venture.

provision

noun

1. Something provided.
2. A store of food or clothing.

respect

noun

1. Regard or honor for the distinguished qualities of others.
2. Good will; favor.

helpful

adjective

Providing assistance; showing a willingness to work together.

heavenly Father

Creator, Lawgiver
and Protector.

One of the names of God
in the Trinity:

Father, Son and Holy Spirit

obedient

adjective

Dutifully complying with the commands or instructions of those in authority.

family

noun

1. The basic unit of society consisting of father, mother and their children.
2. The building block of nations.

character

noun

The qualities that mark an individual's nature, which are formed by his daily choices.

courage

noun

A quality of spirit that enables one to face danger with firmness without fear or fainting of heart.

appointed

adjective

Established;
ordained for a specific purpose.

rejoice

verb

To greatly experience joy and gladness.

share

verb

To divide in portions among two or more.

content

adjective

Desiring no more than what one has; having peace
in your present condition.

masterpiece

noun

The most outstanding work of a creative artist.

resourceful

adjective

Able to act effectively or imaginatively to solve problems and make decisions.

truthful

adjective

Consistently telling the truth;
honest.

fulfillment

noun

The act of completing a promise or desire.

trust

verb

To put confidence un
and rely upon.