

commission

noun

- 1) The act of sending forth.
- 2) The act of granting power and authority to perform various acts or duties.

obey

verb

To submit to the authority of or to comply with the commands or instructions of the one in authority or a law.

geography

noun

The descriptive science of the Earth, which God created as the stage of man's activities.

faith

noun

The assurance of things hoped for;
the evidence of what is not seen.

(Hebrews 11:1)

mighty

adjective

Strong in power, wisdom, wealth, and warfare.

memorial

noun

That which preserves
for future generations
the memory
of something important.

humble

verb

To bring low; to make meek and submissive to God's will.

armor

noun

- 1) The habit worn to protect the body in battle.
- 2) Spiritually, truth, faith, salvation, and God's Word.

confound

verb

- 1) To perplex or amaze.
- 2) To throw into confusion or disorder.

sin

noun

Any act that violates God's commandments
or moral principles.

responsibility

noun

The state of being answerable or accountable for something within one's control.

deceive

verb

To intentionally mislead
or persuade others
by a false appearance
or statement.

victory

noun

Conquest; triumph over an enemy in battle or war.

trust

noun

Confidence; a resting of the mind on the integrity, veracity, justice, or other sound principle of another.

purpose

noun

That object or goal
to be accomplished in any plan.

wholeheartedly

adjective

With a complete heart;
fully devoted and committed.

conqueror

noun

One who gains the victory;
one who subdues
and brings into possession.

action

noun

- 1) Exertion of power or force.
- 2) An act that one consciously wills and performs.

steward

verb

To carefully manage the property or affairs of someone else.

blessing

noun

A favor, gift,
or prophetic benediction
bestowed by God
that invokes happiness.

promise

noun

A binding declaration of something to be done or given for another's benefit.

world

noun

In Scripture, the corrupt system of thinking that is controlled by Satan and is hostile to God and His ways.

choice

noun

The act of selecting or choosing; the determination of the mind in preferring one thing to another.

inheritance

noun

Property passed
from an ancestor to an heir either by gift
or divine authority.