

Imago-Dei

noun

“Image of God” in Latin;
the biblical principle that man and woman are created in God’s image and both mirror and represent God.

role

noun

The purpose or influence of someone in a particular situation.

femininity

noun

Qualities and traits traditionally associated with a woman or girl.

vain

adjective

Conceited;
having a high opinion of one's beauty
or accomplishments.

redemption

noun

The deliverance of sinners from the bondage of sin and the penalties of God's violated law on the basis of the shed blood of Jesus Christ.

radiate

verb

1. To shine or issue rays of light.
2. To enlighten; to illuminate.

called

adjective

Summoned or appointed for a particular duty.

generosity

noun

A quality of the heart motivating a person to give liberally or to bestow favors.

type

noun

A sign; a symbol;
a figure of something to come,
as the paschal lamb was a type of Christ.

virtuous

adjective

Acting and speaking in conformity to moral goodness from a sincere love of God and His laws.

character

noun

The internal moral
and mental qualities,
impressed by habit,
that distinguish an individual.

Messiah

noun

The Anointed One;
The Christ.

providence

noun

The continual care and guidance God provides His creatures as part of His plan and purpose.

submission

noun

Obedience;
the act of voluntarily yielding to the authority and governance of another.

favor

noun

An act of gracious kindness shown by word or deed.

evil

noun

That which is morally wrong in principle and practice, according to God's laws.

choose

verb

To select;
to decide to act in a certain way.

justice

noun

Conformity to moral rightness in action or attitude.

humble

adjective

Lowly, modest, meek,
or submissive.

cause

verb

To bring into existence; to produce.
To effect by power or influence.

sovereign

adjective

Supreme in power;
possessing supreme dominion
over all.

deliver

verb

To free; to set at liberty, as to deliver one from captivity or bondage.

celebrate

verb

To praise, extol, or honor by ceremonies and marks of joy and respect.