

purpose

noun

A plan; a design; a resolve.

refuge

noun

A shelter or protection from danger or distress.

revere

verb

To regard with fear mingled with respect and affection;
to honor.

commission

noun

The act of granting authority or power to carry out
a command or task.

hard-hearted

adjective

Insensitive, unyielding; incapable of seeing truth.

Lamb of God

One of Jesus' names;
the perfect sacrifice
whose shed blood redeems us from God's penalty of sin.

faith

noun

The agreement of the mind to the truth of what God has revealed.

praise

verb

To extol in words or song the virtues and deeds of God as an act of worship.

impossible

adjective

Not capable of having existence or being accomplished.

riches in glory

An abundance of spiritual blessings such as wisdom, eternal life, mercy, joy, peace, and grace.

choose

verb

To freely select after consideration.

holy

adjective

- 1) In a moral sense, whole, entire, or perfect.
- 2) Set apart from that which is common for sacred use or service.

walk

verb

In Scripture, how to live
and act or behave;
to pursue a particular course of life.

dwell

verb

To abide; to live in a place.

Gospel

noun

God's "good news" of salvation and redemption through the finished work of Jesus Christ.

mercy

noun

The tenderness of heart that forgives an offense that requires punishment.

provide

verb

- 1) To procure beforehand;
to make ready for future use.
- 2) To furnish or supply with.

temple

noun

In Scripture, a place in which God's presence resides (1 Cor 3);
the collective Body of Christ (Eph 2).

sacrifice of praise

Praising God for who He is despite our circumstance.

endow

verb

To enrich or to furnish with any gift, quality, or faculty.

idol

noun

- 1) An image consecrated as an object of worship; a pagan deity.
- 2) Anything on which we indulge an excessive attachment.

reconciliation

noun

- 1) The act of reuniting people after a disagreement.
- 2) The way sinners are restored to favor and friendship with God after an estrangement.

contribution

noun

The act of giving voluntarily along with others
to a common purpose.

rest

noun

Inner peace;
trust in God's never-failing providence and care.